

Novel in a Year Terms and Conditions

- Applications are assessed individually and acceptance is at the sole discretion of Daniel Goldsmith Associates Ltd.
- Payment must be made by monthly standing order, set up by the client's bank at the client's instructions.
- Submissions must be fiction only.
- Submissions must be made monthly by a deadline mutually agreed with the mentor via email. The submission date must follow the payment date by at least five days.
- The mentor will agree to assess and reply to all submissions within 14 days of the agreed date.
- The client will agree to submit the monthly installment of agreed number of words within 14 days of receiving the mentor's feedback.
- If a submission has passed the deadline, the mentor reserves the right to assess it within a further 14 days.
- Submissions must not exceed ten thousand words.
- Phone calls are at the mentor's discretion and by prior agreement only.
- The client can exit the course at any time by submitting a four-week notice of cancellation and by cancelling the following month's standing order.
- No refunds will be made for submissions already assessed.
- The 10% discount on the optional copy-editing of completed manuscript is subject to completion of the full twelve-month course.
- Daniel Goldsmith Associates Ltd makes no guarantees that the client's work will be accepted by a literary agent or a publisher as a result of taking part in the Novel in a Year writing course.
